 - a. TRANSPORTATION IN WEST VALLEY- Brent Demoe, Director of Polk County Community Development, appeared to ask the Board if they would like him to explore possible options for providing Polk County residents that live in West Valley with transportation to help them get to Dallas for things like doctors' appointments, grocery shopping, and picking up prescriptions. Community Development did a survey to evaluate the need for this transportation in and the there is a need for this service. Commissioner Pope said he would want to know the business plan, where the money will be coming from. Brent said he is hoping to speak with the CCO about funding it because it would serve a large population of their clients. He is also planning to talk with the tribe in Grand Ronde to see about obtaining a vehicle to use for this transportation. The Board agrees that he should look into this further and come back with more information.

Commissioner Ainsworth adjourned the meeting at 9:15 a.m.
