

DISORDERLY CONDUCT

(500 WORDS OR MORE)

You are to complete an essay including the following information:

- 1. Research the definition of disorderly conduct. Then, reflect on your situation and write about why it does or does not meet the definition. Also include what the maximum penalty for your offense could be if you were to be found within the jurisdiction of the Court.
- 2. Include in your essay what you could have done to prevent this incident from occurring. Give at least 5 alternative actions you can choose from the next time you are placed in a situation similar to that of when you committed your criminal act.
- 3. Now that you have been through this experience, discuss what you have learned and what you would say to a close friend who is considering the same actions.
