

MEETING MINUTES

Central Service Integration Team

Wednesday, September 12, 2012 (10:30 am – Noon)

Polk Fire District #1, 1800 Monmouth St, Independence

Co-Chairs: Pam Erland & Michelle Bornfleth

Agenda Item:	Person:
Introductions & Kudos	Paul Allen – Kudos to Ron Wilson Center for help with a bike. Tula Gutierrez – Kudos to Valerie Reith for providing resources for passports. Jan Calvin – Kudos to Health & Human Services for tables and books NNO Nicole Walker Sundby – Kudos to Joyce Wahl for the Gate B-B-Q. Joyce Wahl – Kudos to Dairy Queen, Roth's, Commissioner Mike Ainsworth for help with the Gate B-B-Q. Commissioner Mike Ainsworth – Kudos to Joyce Wahl for the Gate B-B-Q. To the Polk County Commission for Children and Families for hosting the Poverty Simulation. Kudos to the SIT Team for all the work they do. Also thanks to participants that serve Polk County. Traci Weston – Kudos to Oregon Child Development Coalition for providing space for the Holiday Project. Kudos to Valerie Reith and the Ron Wilson Center for help with the Bike Event. Michelle Bornfleth – Kudos to Ron Wilson Center for helping to provide a bike to a HALO client.
SIT Impact Story-Washer & Dryer Need	Tanya Silva shared about the family need for the washer/dryer. The family was very grateful to have a the items.
Funding Requests <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Funding Request• Funding Request• Funding Request	Melissa Baurer from the Polk County Resource Center is requesting $27.46 for their new sign. All Service Integration Teams are dividing the cost equally. Urgent Needs is now going through the Polk County Resource Center allocating the quarterly amount of $1,200. Easter Seals is requesting $160 for CARTS bus passes to provide transportation for the Post Partum Group.
AC Gilbert's Discovery Village Presentation	Kassie DeMarsh from the AC Gilbert House gave a presentation about discounted rates for those on public assistance. She also spoke of a community center and outreach services to Polk County, an access pass, stamp card and events. AC Gilbert House offers discounts to non-profits and Title I Schools. They are offering after school programs. Please access acgilbert.org for a program guide.
Bike Safety Event	Traci Weston announced the Bike Safety Event on Saturday, September 15, 2012 from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM.
Central School Supply Distribution	Melissa Baurer from the Polk County Resource Center gave an overview of the Central School Supply Give Away. She gave kudos to the Salvation Army, Sterling Bank, Cornerstone Church, Petals & Vines, Monmouth Christian Church and Monmouth Fitness Center for their support of the event. Approximately 315 students were served.

Partner Announcements	Krista Duval, Polk County Resource Center – The Polk County Resource Center will be starting a quarterly newsletter. Krista passed around a sign up sheet for those interested in receiving the letter. Angela Gonzales, Parent Resource & Education Program – A Strengthening Families course will be coming to the Monmouth/Independence area soon. Partners for Young Children will be meeting on September 19, 2012 from 10:30 AM to 12:00 PM to discuss how delivery of services to children 0-6 will be transitioning. Jaime Cantu, Polk County Juvenile Department – Announced the changes in the department. Rich Robison will now manage the Juvenile team with Marty Silbernagel as their Director. Paul Allen, HALO – Shared a “wish list” and announced the Annex at HALO is now available for community use. Joyce Wahl, The Gate – Announced The Gate is now open for students. Laura Zinck, Central School District – Announced that Talmadge Middle School will host an ELL Parent Night on October 25, 2012 from 6:30 to 7:30 PM. Any calendars, resources or presenters are welcome. The Leadership group from Central High School is looking for ways to contribute the community. Sue Teal, Monmouth Senior Center – The Senior Center is working with Petals & Vines on a fundraiser for their expansion project. Tanya Silva, Polk County Public Health – Announced that September is National Emergency Preparedness month. Max Rothenberger, Polk County Public Health – Announced that a Flu Clinic will soon be open at Public Health. Jan Calvin, Fostering Hope – Announced that Ellen Keithley-Garcia accepted a new position. The Fostering Hope program is looking for a part-time (20 hours weekly) Coordinator. Berni Kirkpatrick, OCDC – Shared the migrant season was great. They are recruiting anyone working in the Agriculture industry. Nicole Walker Sundby, Polk County Youth Prevention Program – Announced that iLead will be holding a Youth Leadership Summit. Nicole would like to start a Victim Impact Panel. They are looking into small grants to fund a Drunk Driving Prevention event. Vickie Thompson and Dustin Breitwieser, Polk County Mental Health West Salem – Announced they are now providing services for children. For more information please call 503-585-3012. Ken Braun, VORP/CMS – Announced he can help resolve conflicts at school between students. There are also trainings available. Traci Weston, Car Seat Safety, MISAB Representative – The Women’s Club has space to hold meetings. The Holiday Project. 4-H is offering Outdoor School for home schooling families with children 5th through 8th grades. Michelle Bornfleth, Service Integration Coordinator – Announced that there is a tutor training in Polk County coming up which is hosted by Mid-Valley Literacy Center.
-------------------------------------	---

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, October 10, 2012